

till his death, March, 1851, aged 81 years. Judge Green was a lame man; was distinguished for industry and sound judgment. He built what was afterwards known as the "Kent Place," and owned about sixty acres of land on the hill west of Spring street.

VII. ARTHUR ROGERS, son of Maj. Robert Rogers, opened an office in Concord, 1793, but remained here in practice only a short time. Residing in different places till the death of Capt. Roach, in 1811, he returned to Concord, and was under guardianship—at first of Lewis Downing, and then of Isaac Hill. He died not long after leaving Concord, at Portsmouth, in 1841. [Note. On page 351 it is said that the maiden name of Robert Rogers' wife was Elizabeth Furness. This is a mistake. Arthur Rogers married Elizabeth Furness, and his mother was a Brown, and daughter of Rev. Arthur Brown, of Portsmouth.]

VIII. PHILIP CARRIGAIN. [See Biography, p. 596.]

IX. MOSES EASTMAN, a graduate of D. C., 1794; came from Salisbury to Concord about 1826; was Clerk of the Courts in Merrimack County till 1834. He then returned to Salisbury, where he died, 1848.

PHYSICIANS.

BRIEF BIOGRAPHICAL NOTICES OF PHYSICIANS in Concord, in the order in which they severally commenced practice in town.

For many particulars in this article I am indebted to "Biographical Notices of Physicians," prepared by Drs. William Prescott and Thomas Chadbourne, of Concord, published in N. H. Repository, 1846, vol. II., Nos. 1 and 2.

I. Dr. EZRA CARTER was the first regular physician in Penacook of whom we have any account. See Biography, pp. 553-5.

II. A Dr. EMERY resided here a short time, and moved to Fryeburg, Me.

III. Dr. EBENEZER HANDER GOSS, of Bolton, Mass., settled in Concord about 1770, and married a daughter of Rev. Timothy Walker. He lived at the north end of Main street, where Mr. Charles Smart resides; set out the elm trees before the house; held important offices in town—[see List of Officers]—was surgeon in the army under Gen. Stark; a man of eccentric habits; tall, and of strongly marked features. He moved to Brunswick, Me., where he died at an advanced age.

IV. Dr. PHILIP MACCARRIGAIN, of Scotch descent, born in the city of New-York, 1746; studied medicine in Haverhill, Mass.; came to Concord, 1768; died Aug., 1806. He married a daughter of the late Thomas Clough, Esq., of Canterbury. Dr. Carrigain had an extensive practice, and was famous for surgical skill, of which we have given two specimens: one, in chopping off a finger of Benjamin Rolfe with a chisel and mallet; and the other, sawing off a leg of Richard Potter. See pp. 283, 306. He lived in the house now owned by Mr. Charles H. Stearns, and kept an apothecary store, with other things. Being suspicious that his sons who tended the store did not always make a full return of money received, but without sufficient proof to charge either of them with dishonesty, he called them before him one morning and said, "Boys, in passing Horse-shoe pond last night, I heard voices! saying, 'Who is the rogue? who is the rogue?'" One said, "Philip! Philip!" Another said, "O-ba-di-ah! O-ba-di-ah!" In his practice Dr. Carrigain rode horseback. He was very polite, and when he met any one, even a child, would pull off his hat, and waving it in his hand, make a low bow.

V. Dr. PETER GREEN came to Concord in 1772. See notice in Dr. Green's Family.

VI. Dr. SAMUEL ADAMS, from Lincoln, Mass., was a resident in Concord about 1796; moved to Wiscasset; thence to Boston; and to Cincinnati, where he died at an advanced age.

VII. Dr. G. GRIDLEY was in Concord about 1798; married a daughter of the late David George, Esq. He moved to Newburyport, and thence to Condor, Tioga Co., N. Y. He was celebrated for his successful treatment of the "indolent ulcer," or "sore legs," for which he used what is called "Gridley's Plaster."

VIII. Dr. ZADOK HOWE, from Franklin, Mass., was in practice in Concord about twelve years prior to 1814, when he relinquished his business to his partner, Dr. Thomas Chadbourne, and moved to Boston, and thence to Billerica. He was distinguished for scientific skill.

IX. Dr. THOMAS CHADBOURNE, son of the late Dr. William Chadbourne, of Conway, came to Concord, 1814; married a daughter of Dr. Peter Green, and is now the oldest practicing physician in Concord; received his medical degree at Dartmouth College, 1813; is an honorary member of various medical societies; attended the World's Fair in London, and was one of the Jurors. He resides on the spot where was the garrison house of Edward Abbot.

X. Dr. BENJAMIN PARKER, from Bradford, Mass., was in Concord a short time—not far from 1818. He lived in a house on Pleasant street, afterwards owned by Samuel Fletcher, Esq., where the new Baptist church stands.

XI. Dr. ALEXANDER RAMSEY, a native of Scotland, delivered lectures on Anatomy and Physiology in Concord, and other places in New Hampshire, from 1808 to 1823. He died at Parsonsfield, Me., 1824.

XII. Dr. MOSES LONG, a native of Hopkinton, N. H., commenced practice in Concord, East village, in 1813. He moved from Concord, 1824; practiced three or four years in Hopkinton and Goffstown; went to Warner, and thence to Rochester, N. Y., where he still resides. He has been extensively engaged in the construction of a superior kind of bridges, the invention of his brother, Col. Long.

XIII. Dr. HENRY BOND, was a native of Livermore, Me.; graduated at Dartmouth College, 1813; was tutor, 1815; received his medical degree in 1817. He practiced in Concord from 1816 until 1820,—highly respected and useful,—when he removed to Philadelphia.

XIV. Dr. MOSES CHANDLER, a native of Fryeburg, Me., commenced practice in Concord, 1816; was a surgeon on board of a privateer that sailed out of Portsmouth in 1813. He was a tall, stout, athletic man, and devoted to his profession. He died of dysentery, Sept. 2, 1825, after a short and most distressing sickness; was buried with masonic honors, and a handsome marble stone marks the place of his interment in the old burying-ground.

XV. Dr. PETER RENTON, came from Scotland and settled in Concord, 1822. His practice soon became very extensive, both in Concord and neighboring towns. He lived in the house where Dr. William Prescott now lives. In connection with Mr. John Jarvis, he built the brick factory mill in the West village of Concord, at a cost of about $12,000, designing it for a flour mill, which considerably embarrassed him. Dr. Renton married in Scotland; had two sons, John and George, and a daughter, Christina, born in Concord, and still living. A brother and sister, also from Scotland, were with him while here. He removed to Boston in 1843 or 1844, where he has an extensive and lucrative practice.

XVI. Dr. SAMUEL MORRIL, a brother of Hon. David L. Morrill, came to Concord, 1819, from Epsom, where he had practiced nineteen years, and held important offices. In 1826 he received the honorary degree of M. D. from Dartmouth College; was appointed Justice of the Court of Sessions for the County of Rockingham, 1821; Register of Deeds for the County of Merrimack, 1823, which he held till 1828, when he was elected State Treasurer. In 1829 he was chosen Treasurer of the N. H. Branch Education Society; in 1830, Treasurer of the New Hampshire Savings Bank, which office he still holds; and in 1837 was chosen deacon of the First Congregational church in Concord.

XVII. Dr. RICHARD RUSSELL, resided in Concord about three years previous to 1824, but spent most of his life in practice in Wakefield and Somersworth, at which latter place he died, May 22, 1855, aged about 70.

XVIII. Dr. ELIJAH COLBY, son of Isaac Colby, of Hopkinton, N. H., born June 18, 1798; graduated at the Medical College in Hanover, 1823, and the same year commenced practice in the East village of Concord. He married Susan Eastman, grand-daughter of Jonathan Eastman, Esq., October 27, 1828. In April, 1838, he moved to New Bedford, Mass., where he still resides.

XIX. Dr. EZRA CARTER, was son of Timothy Carter, Esq., of Concord, West Parish. [See "Descendants of Rev. Timothy Walker," and "Town Officers."] He received the medical degree of M. D. at Bowdoin College, in 1824; commenced practice in 1825, in his native town; next year he removed to Loudon; returned to Concord in 1828, where he has remained in large practice till the present time. Representative in 1836 and 1837. He was commissioned justice of the peace in 1837; in 1844 and 1845 was President of the Centre District Medical Society, and in 1852 President of the New-Hampshire Medical Society.

XX. Dr. JOSIAH CROSBY, now of Manchester, came to Concord in 1825, from Epsom, and remained here in good practice till 1828. He was a son of Dr. Asa Crosby, formerly of Gilmanton. His history properly belongs to Manchester, where he is distinguished by an extensive and successful practice.

XXI. Dr. EDWARD B. MOORE, of Lancaster, practiced in Concord about six months, in 1828; thence removed to Epping.

XXII. Dr. JOSEPH REYNOLDS, son of Rev. Freegrace Reynolds, of Wilmington, Mass., came to Concord in 1828; removed to Chester in 1831, thence to Gloucester, Mass. While in Concord he was two years Secretary of the N. H. Colonization Society.

XXIII. Dr. NATHANIEL WHEAT, came from Candia to Concord in 1834, and remained till 1837.

XXIV. Dr. JOSIAH KITTREDGE, a native of Mont-Vernon, N. H., commenced practice in Pembroke, 1819; moved to Boston, 1833; came to Concord, 1837, where, remaining a year or two, he moved to Nashua, where he still resides.

XXV. Dr. ROBERT LANE, of Sutton, came to Concord about 1837, but remained only a short time. His daughter married Geo. W. Ela, Esq.

XXVI. Dr. THOMAS BROWN, a native of Andover, N. H., practiced in Deerfield; was in practice in Concord from 1831 till 1837, when he went to Cambridge, Mass. He afterwards settled in Manchester, where he became widely known for his exertions in the cause of temperance. He died suddenly of cholera, in 1849.

XXVII. Dr. MOSES THOMPSON WILLARD, son of Moses F. Willard, half-brother of Capt. Benjamin Parker, was born in Bow, 1806; graduated at the Medical College in Hanover, 1835, and commenced the practice of dentistry in Concord, where he continues to reside.

XXVIII. Dr. TIMOTHY HAYNES, a native of Alexandria, N. H., born Sept. 5, 1810; took his medical degree at the Jefferson Medical College in Philadelphia, 1836, and immediately after commenced the practice of medicine and surgery in Concord, where he still resides. A large number of individuals have pursued their professional studies under his instruction.

XXIX. Dr. CHARLES PINCKNEY GAGE, born in Hopkinton, April 5, 1811; took his degree at the Medical College in Cincinnati, Ohio, 1837, and remained in that city a year, when he came to Concord, where he still resides in extensive practice. In 1846 he was a delegate to form the American Medical Association, in New-York, of which he is a member.

XXX. Dr. HENRY O. STONE, from Salem, Mass., had an office in Concord in 1845, and remained four or five years.

XXXI. Dr. DANIEL J. HOYT, son of Daniel N. Hoyt, who formerly kept the "Washington House," at the north end in Concord, studied medicine with Dr. Peter Renton, and commenced practice in Concord in 1840; next year he removed to Manchester, where he died, July 13, 1847, but was buried in the old burying-ground in Concord, where a handsome monument is erected to his memory.

XXXII. Dr. ISAAC COLBY, son of Isaac Colby, and cousin of Dr. Elijah C., born in Hopkinton, Aug. 6, 1793, came to Concord in the fall of 1839, and remained about one year and a half. He then moved to Keene, and in 1844 to Salem, Mass. In 1854 he returned to Concord.

XXXIII. Dr. MOSES CARTER, son of Jacob Carter, of Concord, [see "Carter Family,"] entered on the practice of medicine in Newbury, Mass., 1811. During the last war with Great Britain he was a surgeon on board three different vessels, and was twice captured and carried into British ports. After the war he practiced in Salisbury and Amesbury, Mass.; came to Concord, in poor health, 1842. He had a large experience in small-pox, and was usually employed as town physician for persons in that disease. He resided in Concord till 1854, when he moved to Sanbornton-Bridge.

XXXIV. Dr. JONATHAN C. PRESCOTT, born at Sanbornton, June 11, 1795, came to Concord from Pittsfield, in 1843; he died, after a most distressing sickness of disease of the kidneys, Feb. 13, 1844, in the 49th year of his age. He was buried at Pittsfield. At his funeral the Rev. Jonathan Curtice, his former pastor, preached a sermon from Col. 4: 14, "The beloved physician."

XXXV. Dr. EBENEZER G. MOORE, a native of Dorchester, N. H., 1797, having practiced in Tamworth and in Wells, Me., came to Concord in 1844, where he still continues in good practice.
